SILENCE

MEDICINAL.

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure

"Having used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and "Golden Medical Discovery" during the past year," writes Mrs. Mattle Loug, of Phuts Valley, Perry Co., Pa., "I can truthfully recommend these medicines for all female weaknesses. I have used several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' which I consider a great blessing to weak women. I was so nervous and discouraged that I hardly knew what to do. Your kind advice for home treatment helped me wonderfully. Thanks to Dr. Pierce."

SENTENCED TO BE HANGED .- A . WAS tated in yesterday's Gizate, the jury in the trial of the three Van Wormer brothers-Willis, Burton, and Fredcharged with the murder of their ordle, Peter Hallenbeck, came into court at Hudson, N. Y., at 9 30 o'clock yesterday and announced a verdict of murder to the first degree against all three of the defendants. Justice Chester sentenced the three defendants to be elec trocuted in Cinton prison, Dannemora, curing the week beginning May 30, 1902. In passing sentence the justice

eaid gravely:
"It is the saddest act of my judicial "It is the saddest act of my judicial career to be compelled to sentence three young men, three brothers, under a verdict of murder in the first degree," Peter A. Hallenbeck was shot in his house at Greendale, N. Y., where he lived with his aged wife. The story, as brought out on the stand by the prisoners themselves and their cousin, Har-vey Bruce, was that the Van Wormers bought face masks at the store of one Imoud Venner in Kinderhook, where they live), on the day before Christ-mas and then hir d a one-horse team at a livery stable and drove nearly twenty miles to their uncle's house They first peered into the church win dows at that place to make sure that Charles Hallenbeck, the old man's son and his wife were not with their father Then they proceeded to the house rang the bell and as soon as the door opened began firing with revolvers at the aged man. The motive for the murder was declared by the prosecu-ion to be due to a family feud.

NON-UNION MEN MOBBED. - A trainat of non-union linemen from the East had an exciting experience at Mc Keesport, Pa., yesterday. Shortly afternoon wordt was received by linemen out on a strike that non-union men were coming on the Baltimore and Onio Rais-road. The sirkers from McKeesport, Putsburg and Allegheny were at the de-pot when the train rolled in. It was composed of two cars and an engine; the plinds of the cars were drawn. When the signal was given to start the train two strikers jumped on the engine. Wade Hoff, a railroad detective, order-ed them off. He was struck over the nead with a coupling pin and rendered unconscious. F. L. Mattox, a striker from Pittsburg, was knocked uncon-scious by a policeman's club, and Harry Cumminge, the engineer, was struck on the head with a brick. The non-union en to the cars became alarmed and left the train. They were met by the strikers and almost mobbed. A riot call was sent to the police station and a quad of police fought through the mob Lamp, policemen, were badly injured and are in the hospital, Fivemen were arrested. Mayor Blank gave them a hearing and fined each $25 and costs. The mayor said he would allow no in terference on the part of the strikers. The men who remained in the care were taken through to Pittsburg. The strike has been on at McKeesport for three weeks and telephone service is

NEW STEAMSHIP COMBINE.-The London Daily Telegraph this morning announces that prolonged negotiations have resulted in a new combination among the stramehip lines, involving no change of flags and little change in management. The lines involved are the White Star, the Dominion, the Leyland, the Atlantic Transportation, the American, and the Red Star. The joint control of these amalgaments companies, says the Daily Telegraph, will be prescious to the American and the American and the American are the companies. will be practically to the hands of the same men who guide their separate destintes, the intention being to reduce working expenses, to avoid rule-ous competition, and to secure har-monious working relations with the great American railways. The Daily Pelegraph continues: "We under-Telegraph continues: "We under-tand the hearty co-operation of the North-German Lloyd Line and the Hamburg-American Steam Packet Company is siso assured. These lines will, by a working agreement, jenta-into a harmonious community of in terests and co-operation while still maintaining their absolute identify and nationality."

CONFEDERATE BATTLEFIELDS .- Gen William H. Payne, of Warrenton; Mr. Samuel B. Woods, of Albemarle, and Rev. J. P. Smith, D. A Valuable Medicine

For Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the eligitiest bestency in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from a coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch masker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years eince the Cty Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured mequickly of all obest colds. It is especially effective for children and the seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well plersed as myself over the results."
